5 CRITERIA FOR ISSUANCE OF A LICENCE

5.1. Except as otherwise provided in section 18 of this law, the ICMM shall issue an Exploration License for the concerned Mineral Resource and License Area to the concerned applicant if:

5.2. the requirements of section 22, paragraph 1 of this law, have been complied with;

5.3. the applicant's proposed exploration program is based on best practices of exploration, mining and environmental protection;

5.4. the area of land over which the License is sought and the proposed term of the License are not in excess of the area and term reasonably required to carry out the applicant's proposed exploration program;

5.5. the applicant:

5.5.1. has the financial resources reasonably required to carry out its proposed exploration program, and

5.5.2. is not ineligible under section 6 of this law;

5.6. the application and the applicant are otherwise in compliance with all provisions of this law; and

5.7. the issuance of the license within the three-month (3) period following the date of application would be consistent with the implementation of the Mining Strategy.

5.8. Within three (3) months after receiving a complete application from an eligible applicant, the ICMM shall either issue the concerned License or provide the applicant with:

5.8.1. the decision of the ICMM not to issue the concerned License,

5.8.2. a written explanation of the ICMM's reasons for such decision; and

5.8.3. a written information regarding the applicant's legal rights of appeal and judicial review with respect to such decision.

5.9. If the ICMM needs more time to assess the application, the ICMM shall, before the expiration of the referenced three-month (3) period, provide the applicant with a notice informing the applicant of the ICMM's need for more time; in such event, the ICMM shall have an additional two (2) months to either issue the License or to provide the applicant with its decision not to issue the concerned License together with the explanation and information required by paragraph 2 of section 23.

5.10. Where two (2) or more applications complying with paragraph 1 of section 23 are made by different persons for the grant of an Exploration License for the same mineral and in the same area, the applicant whose application was first registered by the ICMM shall have priority.

6 APPLICANT'S DECLARATION

The applicant ensures that the documentation submitted is complete and truthful. He also declares with his signature that he has been informed about the eligibility criteria of section 6 of Law No.03/L-163.
